Annuities are designed for long-term accumulation of money; surrender and withdrawal fees may apply on early withdrawals. Annuity withdrawals are subject to income tax, and withdrawals prior to age 59½ may also be subject to an IRS penalty. Holding an annuity inside a tax-qualified plan does not provide any additional tax benefits. If you annuitize a non-qualified annuity, a portion of your payment will be considered a return of premium and will not be subject to ordinary income tax. The amount that is taxable will be determined at the time you elect to annuitize the policy. This document provides a brief summary of product features. The contract associated with the product will contain the actual terms, definitions, limitations, and exclusions that apply. Products and services may not be available in all states and jurisdictions.

All products are subject to and comply with applicable standard non-forfeiture law. In the event of a contract surrender, the policyholder shall be entitled to a minimum nonforfeiture benefit, which will be calculated based on the premium received, using the interest rate specified in the contract, and will be reduced by any prior withdrawals or partial surrenders taken from the contract, as per the requirements of the applicable state standard nonforfeiture law.

These products are NOT: 1) a deposit; 2) FDIC or NCUA insured; 3) insured by any federal government agency or 4) guaranteed by a bank, savings association or credit union and may lose value. Guarantees are based on the financial strength and claims-paying ability of Gulf Guaranty. Product availability and features may vary by state.
